DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1-5,7-12,14-19,21-26, 28, and 29 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-22 of U.S. Patent No. 5,871,449. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the conflicting claims are an obvious broadening of the scope of the patented claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

2. Claims 1-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Campbell et al.(6245026). Note Col. 11 thru col. 17.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1,3-5,7-9,11,12,14-16,18,20-23,25,26,28, and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Casscells et al.(5935075) in view of Campbell et al.(6245026).

Casscells et al.(5935075) teaches the claimed invention. Casscells et al.(5935075) does not teach passageway allowing blood to flow past the balloon.

Campbell et al.(6245026) teaches a thermal sensing catheter for sensing plaque in which a passageway may allow blood to flow past the occlusion balloons. Campbell et al.(6245026) also teaches that almost any thermal sensing catheter may be provided with perfusion capabilities permitting continuous blood flow while sensing.

It is well known in the art that occluding a vessel for too long is damaging and that it is desirable to allow blood to flow through a vessel being treated. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to include perfusion ports in Casscells et al.(5935075) to allow blood flow through an otherwise occluded vessel to enable longer sensing and treatment without damaging the patient as is well known and taught by Campbell et al.(6245026).

Art Unit: 3737

3. Claims 6,13,20, and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Casscells et al(5,935,075) in view of Campbell et al.(6245026) as set forth above and further in view of Narciso, Jr.(5,217,456).

Casscells et al(5,935,075) teaches the claimed invention including using a plurality of different types of sensors for detecting inflamed plaque. Casscells et al(5,935,075) does not teach detecting emissions from a luminescent material to locate plaque.

Narciso, Jr.(5,217,456) teaches a device and method for intra-vascular optical radial imaging in which light is used to illuminate a region of interest in an artery and fluorescence from molecules in the illuminated tissue is detected and used to differentiate health tissue from atherosclerotic plaque.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a fluorescence detector in the device of Casscells et al(5,935,075) as another known means for sensing plaque in arteries as taught by Narciso, Jr.(5,217,456).

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-29 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 3737

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
